Fundschrift - we currently have 24 people registered and we would like to increase those numbers to 40.

New Business: It was suggested we inquire about a table at the Comox Valley Children's Expo in Comox, possibly to sell some art carts left over from the tea. Motion on the floor to adopt the idea, for further investigation, all in favour, motion passed.

A Parent brought up a bullying issue happening during school hours, Yolanda offers her knowledge on the subject and offers some advice on how to deal with administration regarding this. Dan Costain states if any Parents have any concerns with bullying to please speak to your Child's Teachers and then onto administration if needed. He also suggests to keep an open dialogue with your children as to what bullying really is.

Meeting Adjourned: 8:38pm
